

Roger Bahnik, co-president of the Boys & Girls Club of Oyster Bay-East Norwich, recently announced changes on its board and acknowledged the retiring of board member, Chris Coschignano, and noted his genuine gratitude to him for having devoted 14 years of loyal service to the club. It was with regret that Coschignano tendered his resignation, as he has personally enjoyed his years on the board and devoting his time to the organization.

However, Coschignano has been recently elected as Nassau County District Court Judge for the Fourth District in Nassau County and will be unable to continue with his role as board member. Bahnik additionally announced the election of new board member, Elisabetta Coschignano.

"The Coschignano family has always championed the cause, and their commitment to the Boys & Girls Club is admirable," said Bahnik. "We are all very glad to welcome Elisabetta to our board of trustees, as she is sure to be an invaluable asset to the club."

Elisabetta is a partner in the law firm of Sahn Ward Coschignano PLLC and has been practicing law for more than two decades. In addition to volunteering her time and talents over the years at the Boys & Girls Club of Oyster Bay-East Norwich, she has volunteered at the Pride in Athletics for Life Ice Hockey organization and St. Edward the Confessor Church and School.

She is a past member of the St. Edward the Confessor school board and has served as school board president during her tenure.

Elisabetta and Chris are residents of Oyster Bay, where they are raising their children.
